

MAUNDY THURSDAY DEVOTIONAL

Discussion

How do you honestly see yourself? Do you view yourself as made new, purified, and blameless? What are some names you typically associate with yourself that are not in line with your identity as a born again child of God? Take time today to confess those specific things and repent of not believing what Jesus has said. Then ask Holy Spirit to remind you of what is true.

In what ways have you become numb to the Gospel? If you read through the devotion and nothing jumped out to you, go back and read it again. Ask Holy Spirit to reveal something new... Now, what did God reveal to you? How do you see the Gospel in a new way? What have you missed before? Pray and ask that God would give you a deeper understanding of who He is and what He's done for you.

How does reflecting on all that Jesus has done for you fill you with faith and hope for what God can do in your life right now? How does it change your perspective of what a relationship with God can look like? What are some specific areas in your life you can take a moment to ask God to bring deliverance in? Find scriptures like 1 Corinthians 1:10 that will remind you of what God has done and display it somewhere you can see it every day to encourage you to keep trusting and believing that you have the God of miracles on your side.
